

Global Interdependence Center

International Dialogue Since 1976

GIC Central Bankers Series Presents

Dr. Kingsley Chiedu Moghalu, Deputy Governor Central Bank of Nigeria

for

Economic Development and the Banking Sector in Nigeria

Thursday, June 21, 2012

11:45am - 2:00PM

Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia

Dr. Kingsley Chiedu Moghalu is Deputy Governor of the Central Bank of Nigeria in charge of the Financial System Stability (FSS) Directorate. He is responsible for the implementation of far-reaching reforms to enhance the quality and stability of banks and other financial institutions. He supervises the following Departments of the Central Bank of Nigeria: Financial Policy and Regulation Department, Banking Supervision Department, Other Financial Institutions Supervision Department, and the Development Finance Department. He is also a member of the President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria's Economic Management Team (EMT).

Registration: Members $35/Non Members $50

215-238-0990 or www.interdependence.org