

EXPLORE
America

ENGAGE
in History

EXPAND
your Mind

Join Us for an American History Summer Camp Monday July 24 – Friday July 28, 2017

From Independence to Interdependence
Explore the journey from the Declaration of Independence
to the United Nations Charter

About the Trip:

A FUN Summer Camp in Philadelphia to understand how the Founding Fathers of a new nation moved the nation from 13 separate worlds into one and then, with the US Constitution, moved them to be mutually more dependent on each other in a globally interdependent world.

Visit key sites in Philadelphia including Independence Hall, Liberty Bell, Carpenter’s Hall, Constitution Center, US Mint, Federal Reserve Bank, Old City.

Travel to New York City, visit the United Nations, and other sites of interest. Learn about the United Nations in an interdependent world, have a briefing on the Sustainable Development Goals, visit the General Assembly, and other parts of the UN.

Student Trip Package Includes:

- GEM guides for entire program upon arrival in Philadelphia
- Certificate of Participation

In Philadelphia

- All ground transportation
- CHC Meals: Breakfast each morning - Dinner
- Entrance to all sites
- FITI Programs at locations around Philadelphia

In New York City

- Transportation to NYC and Back
- FITI related Briefing at the UN

Cost per Person: $600, includes lunch

Limit: 30 participants

For Students: Grades 10, 11, 12
(15-19 years old)

For more information: <http://www.gem-ngo.org/From-Independence.html>

Contact GEM at: CHC, 9601 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, PA (215) 248-1150, gem@chc.edu
GEM is an educational NGO (501(C) 3 non-profit organization headquartered at Chestnut Hill College