

Take a trip to the United Nations with GEM

Get more out of your trip to the United Nations with this all day United Nations experience. You and your students can learn about the history of the United Nations during the hour-long tour, have lunch, and explore a topic of your choosing in a briefing by UN Staffers and Officials.

When: Any week day

Who: Students grades 5-12

Where: United Nations Headquarters, New York

What:

Begin your UN experience with a one hour tour of the United Nations

Have Lunch inside the United Nations

Take some time at the UN Post Office, Bookshop, and Gift Store

Be briefed in a UN Conference Room on a topic of your choice. Suggested topics include UN Overview, Millennium Development Goals, Population, Water, War Affected Children, Human Rights and much more.

Cost: $30 per student Cost includes preparatory information, UN Guided Tour, lunch and specialized briefing. Does not include transportation.
Minimum 20 students.

For more information or to book at trip contact:

Global Education Motivators (GEM)
Chestnut Hill College
Philadelphia, PA
215-248-1150
gem@chc.edu