

Senzwa M. Ntshepe, President, The Connect

Senzwa Ntshepe is Diversity Equity and Inclusion strategist and technologist who creates platforms and environments to dismantle structural barriers in young BIPOC professional advancement. Currently, he serves as the president of "The Connect", a network designed to attract and retain young black and brown professionals to Philadelphia, while enhancing their social connectivity, professional development and philanthropic opportunities. Through The Connect, Senzwa consults with municipal and private entities on how to create thriving BIPOC professional ecosystems.